Day 1 – Arrival in Seoul

Arrive in Seoul in the early evening, where your adventure begins. Settle into your five-star accommodation and meet your fellow travellers. Economy-class flights with Korean Air are included in your package.

Day 2 – Ancient Palace & Seoul Feast

We begin the day with a gentle wander through the wonders of Changdeokkung Palace. This palace is a beautiful example of the integration of art and nature and was built in the Joseon Dynasty. For lunch, embark on a private food tour with Seoul food scholar Veronica Kang through Seoul's historic neighborhoods, sampling traditional delicacies and local produce.

We close the day with the gentle beauty of tea at the serene traditional teahouse.

Day 3 – Art, Architecture and a Michelin Chef's Porcelain Collection

We explore the Leeum Samsung Museum, a striking mix of traditional and contemporary art and architecture. Lunch is a very special treat with Michelin awarded Chef Roh who shares her culinary art and aesthetic sensibility, and we have an exclusive tour of her collection of Korean celadon.

Day 4 – Ceramics in Icheon

Today we journey to Icheon, the heart of Korean ceramics. We'll visit the studios of renowned masters Mr Kwak and Mr Park, with demonstrations of their craft. Lunch is a treat: a rice-focused meal in a local specialty restaurant.

Day 5 – SPACE, ART, NATURE

A day trip takes us to the breathtaking Museum SAN, nestled in nature. San is an acronym for Space, Art, Nature and this museum encompasses all contrasting architectural genius with art in the beautiful valley surrounded by trees. This is a day of calm, creativity, and inspiration.

DAY 6 – National Treasures & Studio Visit

This is a day all about the beauty, subtlety and imperfect perfection of the Moon Jar. The morning begins at the National Museum of Korea, where we interact with the timeless beauty of Korea's traditional moon jars. In the afternoon, we enjoy an intimate studio visit and demonstration at with modern master of the form and international artist Byung Sik Moon, a highlight for ceramic lovers.

Day 7 – Temples & Beauty

We head to the Seoul Museum of Craft Art, exploring Korea's remarkable design heritage. After a shared lunch we are free to explore the wonders of Korean beauty. We can organise one of the famous and luxurious head spa experiences, a massage, facial or maybe you just want a gin and tonic in the hotel bar! This is your afternoon to unwind and relax.

Day 8 – Forest Walk & Farewell

On our final day, we'll begin with a walking excursion and explore nearby craft and antique shops before transferring to the airport for your flight home.
